

2013 Retrospective 2013

January

Before joining the Logos Hope in Hong Kong, we had extensive ministry in Taiwan, including giving the closing message at the tri-annual Chinese Symposium.

February

The Logos Hope visit to Sihanoukville, Cambodia, provided many opportunities for sharing the gospel both on board and on shore.

March

Fifty meetings and lectures during ten days in Serbia included a visit to the drug rehab unit in Novi Sad, which is always a blessing and an encouragement.

April

Gareth spent an intense ten days ministering in Pietermaritzburg & Durban. This included making six radio broadcasts just before he flew home.

May

Our first visit to Brazil revealed a vibrant, growing and responsive church which is increasingly sending its people to the ends of the earth.

June

A week spent with the Open Air Mission in London again revealed that westerners are generally more closed to the gospel than those from overseas.

July

A visit to speak at two isolated camps in Greenland showed a nation of staggering beauty but with major social & spiritual needs.

August

OM's 'Transformation' in Kumasi, Ghana was an important conference. Together with other speakers, Gareth ministered daily to 150 leaders.

September

'Keswick in the Borders' in Scotland gave the opportunity to give Bible readings during a weekend of ministry with OM Scotland.

October

Our 6th annual visit to Italy gave us open doors for ministry in churches and also the chance to lead several joint mission prayer meetings for the nations.

November

After preaching to hundreds in India, Gareth preached to thousands in Nigeria, indicative of the fact that significant church growth is now generally found outside the West.

December

We spent Christmas and the New Year onboard Logos Hope ministering to the ship's company as well as local believers onboard and onshore in Ras al Khaimah, UAE and Galle, Sri Lanka.
