

2025 RETROSPECTIVE

JANUARY

It is little wonder that many tourists like to visit and cruise around the islands of the Caribbean!

FEBRUARY

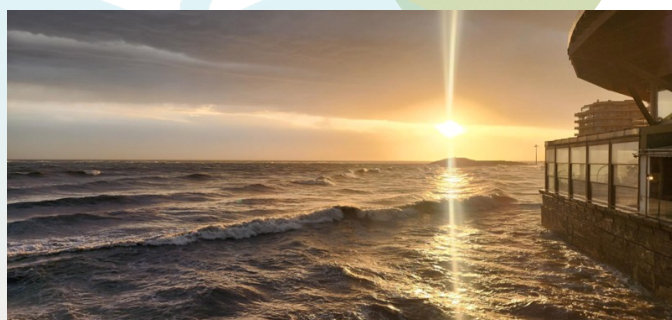

Blickling Hall, a Jacobean stately home in Norfolk which we visited the day after speaking in a church.

MARCH

Cultivated peach tree in bloom in the Georgian countryside

APRIL

After the OM Albania team retreat, we walked along the pier in Durrës and saw this inspiring sunset.

2025 RETROSPECTIVE

MAY

A group photograph of the attendees at the missions' conference held in Serbia on May 31

JUNE

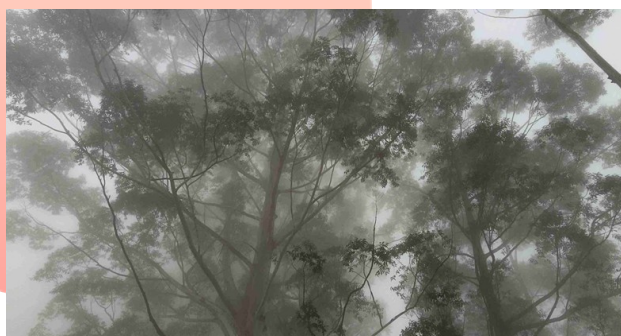

Some of the Oak Hall guests on our enjoyable and refreshing trip to the Amalfi coast in Italy

JULY

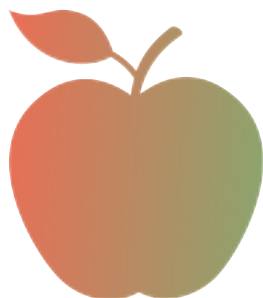

Twelve of us were able to squeeze into a tiny church building in Portugal where they kindly provided translation

AUGUST

High up in a cool hill station, the trees in the low clouds take on a mysterious, monochrome appearance

2025 RETROSPECTIVE

SEPTEMBER

One of our AMEN friends sharing some challenging stories at the AMEN 30th anniversary celebration

OCTOBER

Up to 35,000 tourists per day disembark from huge cruise ships in the port of Nassau

NOVEMBER

One of the many great views we had in the Caribbean while onboard Logos Hope - this one is from Antigua

DECEMBER

AMEN partner 'SIKATT' with some of their scholars. We shared in the celebration of their 25th anniversary